

Nant Gwrtheyrn nature quiz

1. There are three Sites of Special Scientific Interest (SSSIs) around the Nant.
Name the three areas.....
.....
2. What is the name of the most numerous type of tree at Nant Gwrtheyrn?.....
3. In which decade were the trees planted?.....
4. What is the well-known rare bird associated with the Nant?.....
5. In which other areas of Wales are they known to nest?.....
6. These plants grow at Nant Gwrtheyrn – the Welsh poppy, daffodils, foxgloves and gorse.
Which is the odd one out?.....
7. These trees can be found at Nant Gwrtheyrn – oak, hazel, holly, ash and sycamore.
Which tree is not native to Britain?.....
8. Where is Gallt y Bwlch located?.....
9. What type of tree grows there?.....
10. Why don't the oak trees at the Nant grow taller than 2 meters?.....

Interesting fact:

This area has been approved by the European Commission as a Special Area of Conservation because it is one of the best examples in the UK of sea cliffs and completely natural vegetation.

11. Many types of animals live on Carreg y Llam, which is the most common?.....

12. List three birds that nest at Carreg y Llam.....
.....

13. Name the plant with the pink flowers in the image below?.....

14. Which two sea mammals can sometimes be seen in the bay of Carreg y Llam?.....

15. Since when have has the tribe of wild goats lived in the area?.....

16. What is the name of the oceanic plant that grows on Yr Eifl's mountain side?.....

17. List three types of plants you can find on a walk down to the beach.....
.....

18. From which country do many of the stones found on the beach originate?.....
19. Two types of owls can be seen around the Nant – which are they?.....
20. What is the fastest bird in the world that has been spotted at Nant Gwrtheyrn?.....
21. Which bird can be seen in the forest at the Nant hunting squirrels?.....